Dr. Young's Chemical Lectures

We represent at Dr Young's Chemical Lecture given at Market Hall last Friday evening and we were both surprised and delighted — surprised that a young man born and brought up among us, and of quiet and unobtrusive habits, should have acquired such a knowledge of his science. The chemistry and [illegible] in the capacity of the Lecturer, from not having that a lecture was to be delivered upon subjects from Chemistry, or from any other house a larger audience did not assemble to witness the entertainment which most have contributed most highly to their gratification — And we were delighted to witness the brilliant and successful experiments performed by the lecturer. He commenced with the subject of Oxygen gas, and, after briefly tracing its origin [illegible] was a substance in which it existed by diffusion in nature, concerning its properties [illegible] atmosphere and oxygen [illegible] by burning — that although it was a [illegible] was a most common and universal element, he illustrated its properties by burning a common needle phosphorus and sulphur and a [illegible] burning in an atmosphere of pure oxygen gas — in a series of experiments we do not specify. The lecture gave us a very [illegible] the phenomena and the [illegible] which the [illegible] gas, the sun, or water [illegible] and green the bottle, making [illegible] the light was [illegible] the [illegible] sun and was [illegible] by the naked eye — [illegible] the lecturer tell us, is to Dr Young and [illegible] Dr Young, who [illegible] the light [illegible] and [illegible] by burning a [illegible] in oxygen [illegible] and [illegible] gas, there was [illegible] the exhibition [illegible] laughing gas. The particulars of this gas we shall give in a future [illegible] some to laugh, some to dance, and some [illegible] in a current for [illegible] We thought [illegible] that it might be well to have a supply of this gas [illegible] the Hall of Legislative halls where it might be taken by those diffident, bashful and all deprecating members who cannot speak fluently or continuously.

We have been able only to glance at the [illegible] treated by the lecturer and the experiments which they were illustrated, many we have failed to notice. We sincerely hope Dr Young will repeat his lecture, or give us one equally instructive and interesting upon another topic in chemical science, and we earnestly wish that our fellow citizens who have wives, daughters and children may go out and listen, where they cannot fail to be both instructed and pleased, and where we think they will feel a just pride in the lecturer as a Bangor boy and we sincerely hope that the Managers of the Lyceum, who seem so fortunate in having secured this gentleman, will not be disappointed from a failure of the lecturers whom they had engaged to come and return the present season, will engage Dr Young to give one or more lectures before that institution the ensuing winter, and that they will bear in mind that some of our indigenous lecturers may be quite as competent as those of higher names and of a wider extended fame, who are only to be procured from abroad, and at a great expense

This has been a dull week in the produce markets, to which the unfavorable state of continental politics has mainly contributed, and though the foreign intelligence of yesterday and to day is considered on the whole more encouraging, a want of confidence still prevails, and the tendency to improvement in the manufacturing districts has again received a partial check Money continues very abundant, and not more than 2½ per cent obtainable out of doors for first rate paper, though the minimum bank rate remains at 3 per cent

ORATORS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION By E L Magoon Second edition New York Baker & Scribner 1848 pp 456

We have received a copy of this work from E P Dutton and the examination we have given it has impressed us strongly with its value The author has here brought out in bold relief the political features of our revolutionary period He has a passion for oratory and has been doing it as a living student, warm as an enthusiast, and great as an artist It is the first great attempt, and a worthy one, to unfold the character of our revolutionary orators in reference to the great art of which they were masters

There are brought out here in their distinctive characteristics, the representatives of several of the important departments of oratory; thus we have James Otis, orator of intrepid passion, Josiah Quincy orator of refined enthusiasm, John Hancock the dignified Cavalier of Liberty, Joseph Warren, type of Martial eloquence, John Adams orator of blended enthusiasm and sobriety, Fisher Ames orator of genius and elaborate beauty and so of many others

Our old men cannot but delight in the finished portraiture here given of the fathers of the American Forum, while our young men will gather up new inspiration in the grand descriptions and analysis here given of American oratory of the early time

Lizzy's "Back Hair."

BY DOUGLASS JERROLD.

'Come what will I'm determined o' that, they shan't touch Lizzy's hair The girls as good a right to hands as any lady in the parish, and if she isn't to go to school without loosing her back hair, she shall stop at home and learn nothing

Such was the declaration of Barbara Dock delivered too, with a tone and manner that proved that she had weighed the consequences of her will, and was at any suffering prepared to maintain it

The Docks were about the poorest family of the pauper village of Nettlefield Days came and went, and many a day they knew no better feeding than one half meal In winter they shivered at a fireless hearth—stern, hard-featured inexorable poverty was ever Lord of their home and household

And yet, pride—worldly pride took her seat in the miserable cottage, and surrounded by want and squalor in their foulest forms and most degrading spirit, had nevertheless her miserable delights, her small whims and fantasies wayward, as though she played the fine, fantastic lady in the finest drawing room It was this pride that with which like malice whispered to Mrs Barbara Dock—'Come what will, preserve at any cost your daughter Lizzy's rock hair

A few words will inform the reader in what manner Lizzy's hair was peril

The village of Nettlefield was about a mile and a half distant from a small, yet substantial country town, whose richer inhabitants had built a school for the children of the very poor Now, it was one of the laws of the girls school—a law passed in solemn parliament of the rich and respectable matrons—that the 'pauper pupils should be required to forego the vanity of curls and bands We know not whether these excellent women had ever read 'The Unloveliness of Lovelocks' and other pamphlets from the good old Puritan times for their special discomfiture and conversion of those who suffered their souls to be endangered by the sin—they, however, legislated in the cropping spirit of such writers, and required of every pupil that not only should she eschew bands and front curls, but that her 'back hair should be cut off in decent closeness to the nape of the neck It was not thought seemly that poverty should rejoice in flowing tresses There was danger in them The lady-committee were doubtless right There have been she Sundays carrying worse than death in their wanton ringlets

Now, Lizzy Dock was a rough made lonkin wench of fourteen Had dame she was not, save in the eyes of her mother Indeed, throughout the neighborhood Lizzy Dock was frequently saluted with words that must have been a sharp lesson to female beauty, the swains of Nettlefield would, in the unsophisticated Doric, tell her their private and public opinion of her personal charms, nevertheless Lizzy Dock had not the weakness of the humanity to believe them If, too, Lizzy was proud of any thing in this world, it was her hair It was the color of the sallow, and by dint of coaxing she had got it to curl indeed into a thick wavy coil Now, with these white locks did Lizzy astound the proprietor of the girls school at — She knew not the mystery of the alphabet and was sent at the age of fourteen years, to become a scholar in the horn book of charity

Lizzy returned to the cottage at dinner time to mind dinner—and told her mother the first of the governess Whereupon, Mrs Barbara Dock delivered herself of the sentence which opens our story 'I tell you I'm not to go to school with out losing her back hair, she should stop at home, and learn nothing'

Lizzy returned to school bearing this determination, a little modified in its phraseology to the governess 'Her mother couldn't think that she should lose her hair' Whereupon, Lizzy was sent home with a decree not to return to school again unless properly shorn — And Lizzy returned not, but keeping her back hair, stayed at home In an hour at most, the whole story was talked over at every hearth in Nettlefield Everybody wondered at the pride and impudence of Mrs Dock, and not a few predicted a wretched, sinful ending for Lizzy — It mightseemly be guessed what her back hair would bring her to

The committee of ladies, informed of the waywardness of Mrs. Dock, declared one and all, that amongst the serious sins of human life the implacable resistance to the patronesses of the school was the gravest indeed they had ever heard of Some judgment must certainly fall upon the woman in her pride and wickedness However, human charity prevailed, for the lady patronesses determined that the woman Dock should not be left to perish in her perversity, resolved upon a benevolent pilgrimage to her habitation It was at first suggested that the whole committee should present themselves before the Dock woman but on second thoughts, the interfering was considered, lest it might produce some serious shock on the nerves of the offender whereupon, it was resolved that Mrs Cuckfield the Squire's Lady a gentlewoman renowned for her gracious freezing point—should alone read a terrible lesson to the stubborn Mrs Dock It was especially necessary that an example should be made of the woman, that she should be taught to feel the presumption of her doings, and which is capable of confounding her as the Squire's Lady? Straightway, Mrs Cuckfield dressed herself in the phaeton, and drove to Nettlefield

A sudden silence fell upon the village, as the plump rolled smoothly toward it Women curtsied at every door step; the children left off playing and squabbling, and with finger in mouth, looked bashful at the Squire's Lady's carriage The village cars seemed struck with shamefacedness for they ventured not the weakest bark at the horses heels, but slunk up in doorways, and, with quivering noses and abashed countenance, sat silently upon their haunches, hardly venturing a leer at the Squire's Lady

The phaeton stopped Mrs Dock's cottage — Whereupon, Mrs Dock appeared at the door, attended by Lizzy—whose back hair by the way was in the most innocent condition of curl,—and dropped a dutiful curtsey to Mrs Cuckfield, who, with lady like wrath in her countenance, designed no recognition, but, with very right eye-lids, passed into the cottage In a moment, Mrs Dock passed behind upon one of the two chairs, and presented it to the Squire's Lady Mrs Cuckfield threw a glance upon the rugged rusty bottom, then, arranging her gown, sat down upon the seat No Lord Chief Justice ever took his place upon the bench with greater dignity, none ever looked more terrible to a culprit. As for Mrs Dock, she instantly divined the cause of Mrs Cuckfield's visit, and, though a little flustered by a sidelong, that she felt was about to begin, she nevertheless strung herself up for the contest, and in a very few moments her face looked dogged and stony Indeed, it may be truly said that she was armed to the teeth for the encounter

'You've had a prize in the lottery, eh, Mrs Dock?' said Mrs Cuckfield, with the cutting voice of an east wind.

'Not at all ma'am' answered the woman.—'Prizes ma'am, don't come to poor people, ma'am.'

'Not a prize! well I declare, I thought of course you were suddenly become very rich? and you're as poor and destitute as ever?' asked the Squire's Lady.

'If you please, ma'am,' replied Mrs Dock.

'And I suppose, ma'am, not in particular in the cupboard' said Mrs Cuckfield.

The poor woman made no verbal answer; but moving a pace or two, opened a corner cupboard door, and showed it a empty shelves.—There was truly nothing in it 'We have tasted meat—not so much as a bit of bacon—these two months.'

'I thought as much,' cried Mrs Cuckfield, as though she was last convinced of the guilt of the offender 'I thought as much.'

'Wages is dreadful low,' said Mrs Dock with a sigh 'I don't know what things will come to Them as are poor had better lie in their graves.'

'Perhaps some of them, answered the Squire's Lady, with a slight bitterness.

'For my part, ma'am,' cried Mrs Dock, 'I don't care how soon'

'Why, you wicked creature! you ungrateful, wicken woman! Don't you blush—ar'nt you ashamed of yourself?' cried the Squire's Lady.

'What for, ma'am?' asked Mrs Dock, with Arcadian ignorance.

'You, who ought to know your place? You, poor destitute creatures, with nothing but your hard labors to live upon—you, with an empty cupboard, half naked, and without one of the comforts of life about you—you dare to,—why, it's flying in the face of Providence! Wretched woman! don't you expect the roof to fall—or the earth to open and swallow you up?'

'What for, ma'am?' again asked Mrs Dock

'What for? Turn round your back girl' cried Mrs Cuckfield to Lizzy, who instantly obeyed the order 'There, cried Mrs Cuckfield pointing her finger towards the felonious back hair—'Look at that and blush'

'What for, ma ain't' for the third time asked Mrs Dock

Mrs Cuckfield was about to storm, but she remembered the dignity of the Squire's Lady, and with purse-worthy calmness—considered the effect it cost her—asked, 'Am I to understand, woman, that you will not permit your girl to submit to the school crop? That, in a word, you insist upon her wearing bands, and keeping her back hair?'

'Poor people have a right to their hair ma'am,' said the stolid Mrs Dock

'It is true, then?' cried the Squire's Lady

'Poor people have as good a right to what they are born with, said Mrs Dock, 'as the rich Quit as good a right'

'Was there ever such insurance?' exclaimed Mrs Cuckfield

'If God A'mighty didn't think so, said Mrs Dock, 'God Almighty wouldn't make rich folks and poor folks alike

'Well, if ever' ejected the Squire's Lady

'Lizzy's as good a right to her back hair as the Queen of England, cried Mrs Dock

She has such a right Human pride had passed its limit, all wide as it was, and the Squire's Lady, almost aghast at the cottager's wife, made for the door should Lizzy pity for human infirmity unite her sad lonely pride She gathered herself up for one last time stance — 'Mrs Dock, you understand, that unless your girl comes to the school in the regular way her place cannot be received there In which case, she will grow up a creature, ignorant as the pigs Do the last time, will you cut off her back hair'

Mrs Dock firmly replied, poor people, ma'am have as good a right to their back hair, ma'am, as the richest in the land ma'am

The Squire's Lady passed from the cottage to her phaeton, and with not another word drove off

The school committee were more than astonished at the report of Mrs Cuckfield Their energy was piqued by the presumption of Mrs Dock, and one by one the ladies visited her, as indeed, they would have visited some strange animal Female and all, however, Mrs Dock, observed, that Lizzy had as good right to her back hair as the Queen of England

Lizzy did not go to school She have, in fact her back hair, and with such adornment, grew up in the proprietic words of Mrs Cuckfield, ignorant as a pig'

Miserable vanity! thinks the reader, that in such condition of life indulges mental hopes towards ornament Alas, good Sir Cuckfield very well to shake the head in sad reproof of pauper Lizzy Dock, and her foolish mother—but how many are there, who all the world's comforts about them, who in some way or the other, do not sacrifice in reward excellence for a sort of back hair?

A Beautiful Figure

Life is beautifully compared to a fountain fed by a thousand streams, that perish if one be dried It is a silver cord twined with a thousand strings, that part asunder if one be broken Fond and thoughtless mortals are surrounded by innumerable dangers, which make it much more strange that they escape so long, than that they all most all perish suddenly at last — We are encompassed with accidents every day to crush the tottering tenements which we inhabit The seeds of disease are planted in our constitution by nature The earth and atmosphere whence we draw the breath of life are impregnated with death, health is made to operate its own destruction The food that nourishes contains the elements of decay, the soul that animates it by vivifying fire, tends to wear it out by its own action, death lurks in unusual along the paths Notwithstanding, this is the truth, so palpably confirmed by the daily examples before our eyes, how little do we lay it to heart We see our friends and neighbors among us, but how seldom does it occur to our thoughts that our turn shall perhaps give the next fruitless warning to the world

Type-Cutters

Persons unacquainted with the art of type making, says the Anglo-Saxon, would be surprised to hear that there are not more than three men in the United States acknowledge by type founders and printers to be good type cutters, and there are not ten men in the Union who ever pretend to cut type The type cutting is a very difficult art to acquire There are many trades and professions which any one of moderate capacity can acquire so as to be tolerably useful in them It is not so, however with type cutting

Washington Co. Mutual Insurance Company, at Granville, N. Y.
20,000 Members—Over Ten Millions Insured, and a large accumulated Cash Fund.
THE undersigned, having been duly appointed as Agent of the above Company, would respectfully call the attention of the public to the numerous advantages this Company have over all other institutions of the kind. They insure none but the safest kinds of property, (being a Farmer's Company,) and take no risks over $2000. Their policies are made on fair and equitable principles, giving the insured an equal chance with the Company of being entitled to the full amount of damages, not exceeding the amount insured, without deducting one third as is customary with some other Companies. They are prohibited by their By-Laws from insuring in Towns, or exposed parts of villages, or from taking risks upon any kind of Mills, Stores, or Manufactories, that are considered hazardous; are responsible for the correctness of all surveys made by their Agents, agree to arbitrate all matters of difference in the county where the loss happens, and give the insured the privilege of withdrawing at any time by paying in proportion of the loss while his policy is in force. Every loss sustained by its members has been settled to the full satisfaction of the sufferers, and paid before it was due; and the rapid increase of business is the strongest evidence to prove that the method of the Directors in making these a Mutual Society, have been fully appreciated. Any person desirous of being insured will find it for his interest to examine the principles of this office, and the plan upon which it is established.—Any information will be furnished at the office of Moss, Upham & Co. The Great Remedy for Gonorrhœa

CURE Stricture of Urethra, Allaying all complaints in Dr DILL GLASS'S ARABIAN PANACEA. Dr Dillingham is well known having practiced in the principal cities in the Union during the last 10 years. His only reason for introducing it at this late period of life is the great success that he has had in the cure of thousands who are living proofs of his skill in treating these diseases, and who are now enjoying the blessings of health, by taking the Panacea.

Dr Dillingham's motto is that during his practice of forty years he has never, in one single case, failed of effecting a cure in a few days with no exposure of the patient from business. He has cured many of the worst stubborn cases—cases that have resisted the regular course of treatment adopted by our first physicians, for more than a dozen years but all yielding to the Panacea in a few days. The Panacea for a few days the nearly symptoms disappeared and the patients were discharged entirely cured.

In the usual way he was accustomed to dragging themselves with quack nostrums and paid purchase only one box of the Arabian Panacea we should not see so many emaciated boil ey and sallow complexion faces as we do at the present time.

In case he should fail to effect a cure in the shortest possible time, two times the price paid for it will be given to the purchasers on returning the empty boxes.

For sale only by the original inventor and sole proprietor Dr PETER G DOUGLASS, at his Office No 55 Union street Boston at $5 per box where he can be confidently consulted on every disease incident to the human frame and the patient relying upon the most beneficial course of treatment that can possibly be adopted.

Important Discovery

GRAY HAIR can be restored to its original color, whether Auburn Brown or Black Sandy, Light or Red Hair can be changed with any darker shade, surpassing in beauty even the most natural hues, to suit the fancy of all persons by using the original Hair Dye Batchelor's.

Permanent Liquid Hair Dye,

Of one preparation which in every way differs from all other preparations of Hair Dye now before the public. Is free from all injurious properties, which can be tested by taking a lock of the hair and washing it in the mixture, no odor, no stain, no dirt, will not injure the glossy nature of the hair, the slightest tint, which is the best evidence of its being a safe and sure preparation. In the cheapest, it surpasses all in texture. Hair prepared by it can be washed in soap and water without injury. You can well imagine that if it has colored so fairly it will not crock, fade or stain.

In short from its superior efficacy, softness and easy application it is worth the attention of all who may wish to improve the color of the Hair, as it will not by any chance, from its peculiar nature, be now used to an unacceptable extent, by persons who have premature Gray locks, and others whose Hair is of no desirable color, which they restore at a change from a beautiful Auburn Brown or Black with out any additional preparation or for the slightest trouble

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla and Dock.

THE articles above named are the principal ingredients of this medicine. With these others of vegetable or gum are combined designed to render them more active and consequently more immediately effective.

The Dock, or rather extract of it now ranks as a medicinal plant second to no one of the vegetable kingdom. With the aid of a distinguished chemist, whom the proprietor has consulted in the preparation of the compound he has succeeded in overcoming the difficulty of preserving the extract of the root for any considerable length of time.

For many years the proprietor has tested in his practice the efficacy of the principal substances of the compound and is perfectly satisfied that they possess all the properties which have been ascribed to them. Recently he conceived the idea of uniting them, which has resulted in the production of the compound. In this the ingredients are united to act in harmony and to lose none of the qualities which they separately possess.

A larger portion of Sarsaparilla is soluble than has generally been supposed. The extract root to be relied on and least liable to decomposition, is prepared by subjecting the root to the action of the menstrua usually employed in extracting the virtues, for a long time, without the use of any other accelerating agent. None is permitted to be used in the compound that has not been obtained by this process and that has been less than a year in preparation.

The Compound is recommended for Scrofulas Erysipelas, Ulcerous affections Eruptions and Mercurial diseases. Also for the numerous maladies arising from sedentary employments, occupations of a harassing and fatiguing nature, intense applications, exposures to extremes of heat and cold, overtasking the physical powers and other abuses of the constitution among which are Neuralgia, Piles Affections of the Liver, Bilious Complaints and Dyspepsia of bad caution.

In diseases of warm climates, with which the proprietor become familiar in his practice in Havana, some years since, the compound will prove particularly efficacious, both as a remedy and a preventative.

This medicine has been for some time in use this city, where the proprietor has passed nearly half a century of his professional life. It was extensively prescribed by him while in practice, and it is believed to be in favor with his medical brethren in general, to whom he is known.

New York, April 28 1847

DR TOWNSEND—I really believe all your Sarsaparilla has done for me as through Providence of my life. I have for several years had a dreadful cough. It became so severe at last I could hardly get out of bed. I had frequently spitting of blood and night sweats and was greatly reduced and really did not expect to live—I have only taken your Sarsaparilla a short time and there has been a wonderful change wrought in me I am now able to walk all over the city. I raise no blood, only a little at times. You can well imagine that I am thankful for these results

RHEUMATISM

This is only one of more than four thousand cases of Rheumatism that Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla has cured. The most severe and chronic cases of rheumatism eradicated by its extraordinary virtues.

James Cummings, Esq one of the assistants in the Lunatic Asylum Blackwell's Island, is a good man of good character the following he says

Blackwell's Island, Sept 14, 1847

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir I have suffered with for nine years with an Rheumatism, for several of the time I could not get sleep or walk I had the most distressing pains and my limbs were extremely swollen. I have used four bottles of your Sarsaparilla and they have cured me better than one. It is more dollars worth of good. I can so much either—and I am entirely relieved. You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted. Yours respectfully,

JAMES CUMMINGS

FITS! FITS! FITS!

Dr Townsend not having tested his Sarsaparilla in cases of Fits, of course never recommended it and was surprised to receive the following from an intelligent and respectable Farmer in Westchester County

Fordham, August 13 1847

Dr Townsend—Dear Sir My little girl, seven years of age, who has been several years afflicted with Fits we tried almost every thing for her, but with no success, at last all hope was lost and no recommendation in your circulars for them I believe, we thought, as she was in very poor health, we would try it. It is one of your sugar coated pills, and are very glad we did for it not only removed her at first but she has had no return of the fits, to our great pleasure and surprise. She is fast becoming rugged and healthy, for which we feel grateful. Yours respectfully

FEMALE MEDICINE.

Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla is a sure sign and speedy cure for Incipient Consumption, Barrenness Prolapsus Uteri or Falling of the Womb, Contractions Pains, Inflammations or Whites, obstructed or difficult Menstruation Incontinence of Urine or involuntary discharge thereof and for the general prostration of the system—no matter whether the result of inherent cause or causes produced by irregularity, illness, or accident. Nothing could be more surprising than the invigorating effects of this medicine from personal weakness and lassitude, from taking it, at once become robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediately counteracts the miserable weakness of the female frame which is the great cause of Barrenness—It will not be a question of use, in cases of cold temperament, to a multitude of diseases it is performed, that we can assure the afflicted that hundreds of cases have been reported to us. Thousands of cases which families have been without children after using a few bottles of this invaluable medicine, have been blessed with fine healthy offspring.

TO MOTHERS AND MARRIED LADIES

I am convinced that Sarsaparilla is expressly prepared in reference to the Female Complaints. No female who has reason to anticipate approaching that critical period The turn of life should neglect to take it, as it is a certain preventative for any of the numerous and horrible diseases to which females are subject at this time of life. This period may be delayed for several years by using the Sarsaparilla. Now is the time to prepare for those will come approaching womanhood and to enlighten the inner nature by quickening the blood and invigorating the system. Behind this medicine is invaluable for all the delicate diseases in which women are subject.

It braces the whole system, renews permanently the natural energies—by removing the impurities of the body, not so far as to produce subsequent relaxation—which is the case in most medicines taken for female weakness and diseases. By using a few bottles of this medicine, many severe and painful surgical operations may be prevented.

GREAT BLESSING TO MOTHERS AND CHILDREN

It is the safest and most efficacious medicine for purifying the system, and relieving the sufferings attendant upon child birth ever discovered. It strengthens both the mother and child, prevents pain and disease, increases and enriches the food—those who have used it think it indispensable. It is highly useful both before and after confinement, as it prevents diseases, tendant upon child birth—as Costiveness, Cramps, Swelling of the Feet, Depondency, Heartburn, Vomiting, Pain in the Back and Loins, False Pains, Hemorrhage, and in regulating the secretions and quickening the circulation it has no equal. The great beauty of this medicine is it is always sure, and the most delicate one it most successfully, very few cases require any other medicine—in some a little Castor Oil or Magnesia is useful. Exercise in the open air, and light food with this medicine, will always insure a safe and easy confinement.

BEAUTY AND HEALTH

Cosmetics, Chalk, and a variety of preparations generally in use when applied to the face, very soon spoil it of its beauty. They close the pores of the skin, and check the circulation, which, when nature is not obstructed by the use of powder or the skin impoverished in its secretions, unsightliness is soon the result. Nature is the best "painter in the world" as well as in the garden of rich and delicate tinted and variegated flowers. A free, active and healthy circulation of the fluids or the quickening of the pulse, rich blood to the extremities is that which paints the countenance in the most exquisite beauty. It is that which imparts the indescribable shades and flashes of loveliness that is indefinite but none can describe. This beauty is the offspring of nature—not of powder or soap. If there is not a free and healthy circulation there is no beauty. If the lady is of a sallow brown, if she paints and use cosmetics, and the blood is thick, cold, and impure, she is not beautiful. If she be brown or yellow, and there is pure and active blood, it gives a rich bloom to the cheeks, and a brilliancy to their eyes, that is fascinating.

This is the reason why the southern, and especially the Spanish ladies are so much more beautiful. Ladies in the north who take but little exercise or are confined in close rooms, or have spoiled their complexion by the application of cosmetics in mixtures, if they wish to regain a clearness of skin, buoyant spirits, sparkling eyes and beautiful complexion, they should use Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla. The accounts which have tried it are more than satisfied, are delighted. Ladies at every station crowd our office daily.

NOTICE TO THE LADIES.

Those that imitate Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla have ridiculously called their trash a great remedy for females, &c, &c, and have copied our bills and circulars which relate to the complaints of women, word for word—other men who put up medicines have, since the great success of Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla in complaints incident to females, recommended them, although they only they did not. A number of these Mixtures, Pills, &c, are for sale here to females, as they aggravate disease, and undermine the constitution.

SCROFULA CURED

This Certificate conclusively proves that this Sarsaparilla has perfected control over the most obstinate diseases of the blood is unprecedented. To persons certain one bottle

THREE CHILDREN

Dr Townsend, Dear Sir—I have the pleasure to inform you that three of my children have been cured of the Scrofula by the use of your excellent medicine—They were afflicted very severely with bad sores. [From Northfield, Vt.]

Dr W Wright—Dear Sir—I have used your Indian Vegetable Pills in my family for the last four or five years, and have come to the conclusion that they are superior to any other patent medicine in the market. I have given them to a number of persons in bilious and other complaints and they have always proved the most efficacious and satisfactory medicine they have ever taken.

Yours respectfully, CHESTER GILMAN

Dr Wright—We have used and sold your Indian Vegetable Pills for three years past and find no better medicine in our families and customers as the best family medicine in use. N & L RAMSDELL

(From Marble Hill, Pa.)

To Dr W Wright—Dear Sir—For the last two years I have had a large sale for the Indian Vegetable Pills in this place, and have sold a considerable quantity of them. They have, in every instance, given entire satisfaction. Many of them have taken them in preference to other pills. I consider them a valuable family medicine. There is no medicine here that can be so universally recommended as Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.

TESTIMONY OF ANOTHER PHYSICIAN

The following is in answer to my reply to a note from our agent asking the favorable opinion of the medicine

DUNKANNOCK Aug 29 1848

Mr A Durbin—Dear Sir—In reply to your note received day I would say that I have been long in the habit of conscientiously recommending your "Indian Pills" wherever in the shape, and while I am unwilling to say anything to depreciate the value of others, I am free to confess that I consider Dr Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills superior to all others with which I am acquainted. I have used them in many cases both in my own family and in my practice generally, and they have uniformly proved mild, certain in their operation. The great and skill with which these Pills have been enabled to manufacture them, in my opinion, a sufficient guarantee for his good results in future.

Very truly and respectfully, B A BUTLER M D

For the Removal and Permanent Cure of all

NERVOUS DISEASES,

And of those Complaints which are caused by an impaired, weakened or unhealthy condition of the

NERVOUS SYSTEM.

This beautiful and convenient application of the mysterious powers of GALVANISM and MAGNETISM, has been pronounced by distinguished physicians, both in Europe and the United States, to be the most valuable medicinal discovery of the Age

is used with the most perfect and certain success in all cases of

GENERAL DEBILITY,

Strengthening the weakened body giving tone to the various organs, and invigorating the entire system. Also in

FITS, CRAMP, PARALYSIS AND PALSY,

Dyspepsia or Indigestion,

RHEUMATISM, Acute and Chronic, GOUT, EPILEPSY, LUMBAGO, DEAFNESS, NERVOUS TREMORS, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, APOPLEXY, NEURALGIA, PAINS in the SIDE and CHEST, Liver Complaint,

SPINAL COMPLAINT, and CURVATURE of the SPINE, HIP COMPLAINT, DISEASES of the KIDNEYS, DEFICIENCY OF NERVOUS AND PHYSICAL ENERGY, and all

Nervous Diseases,

which complaints arise from one simple cause, namely,

A Derangement of the Nervous System.

☞ In NERVOUS COMPLAINTS, Drugs and Medicines increase the disease, for they weaken the vital energies of the already prostrated system, while under the strengthening life giving, vitalizing influence of Galvanism, as applied by this beautiful and wonderful discovery the exhausted patient and weakened sufferer is restored to former health, strength elasticity and vigor

The great peculiarity and excellence of

consists, in the fact that they arrest and cure disease by outward application, in place of the usual mode of drugging and physicking the patient till exhausted Nature sinks hopelessly under the infliction.

They strengthen the whole system, equalize the circulation of the blood, regenerate the secretions and never do the slightest injury under any circumstances.

Since their introduction in the United States, only three years since more than 60,000 Persons including all ages classes and conditions among which were a large number of ladies who are peculiarly subject to Nervous Complaints, has been

when all hope of relief had been given up and every thing else been tried in vain.

To illustrate the use of the GALVANIC BELT, suppose the case of a person afflicted with that bane of civilization, DYSPEPSIA, or any other Chronic or Nervous Disorder. In ordinary cases, stimulants are taken, which, by their action on the nerves and muscles of the stomach, afford temporary relief, but which leave the patient in a lower state and with injured faculties, after the action thus excited has ceased. Now compare this with the effect resulting from the application of the GALVANIC BELT. Take a Dyspeptic sufferer even in the worse symptoms of an attack, and simply tie the Belt around the body using the Magnetic Fluid as directed. In a short period the inertible perspiration will set on the positive element of the Belt, thereby causing a Galvanic circulation which will pass on to the negative, and thence back again to the positive thus keeping up a continuous Galvanic circulation throughout the system. Thus the most severe cases of DYSPEPSIA are PERMANENTLY CURED A FEW DAYS IS OFTEN AMPLY SUFFICIENT TO ERADICATE THE DISEASE OF YEARS and conclusively proves that

"Truth is stranger than Fiction."

The following letter, narrating one of the most remarkable events in the annals of Medical Science, is from the

Rev. Dr. Landis, a Clergyman of New Jersey of distinguished attainments and exalted reputation —

SIDNEY, New Jersey, July 12 1848

DR A H CHRISTIE—Dear Sir You wish to know of me what has been the result in my own case of the application of THE GALVANIC BELT AND NECKLACE. My reply is as follows

For about twenty years I had been suffering from Dyspepsia. Every year the symptoms became worse, nor could I obtain permanent relief from any course of medical treatment whatever. My physicians were skilful and excellent men, but here their prescriptions failed. About fourteen years since in consequence of frequent exposure to the weather in the discharge of my pastoral duties, I became subject to a severe Chronic Rheumatism, which for year after year, caused me indescribable anguish. In the severest paroxysms, the skill of my physicians sometimes afforded me great relief, but this relief was only temporary. Rather, in the winter of '46 and '48, in consequence of preaching a great deal in my own and various other churches in this region I was attacked by the Bronchitis which soon became so severe as to require an immediate suspension of my pastoral labors. My nervous system was now thoroughly prostrated, and as my Bronchitis became worse, so also did my Dyspepsia and Rheumatic affection—thus evincing that these disorders were connected with each other through the medium of the Nervous System. My sufferings were indeed severe, and I had no prospect whatever being entirely laid aside from the discharge of those duties, and the performance of those labors, in which my soul has ever found the highest enjoyment.

But reasoning from effect to cause I concluded that the Nervous System must be reached before any hope could be indulged of my obtaining relief from these most distressing maladies. In the whole pharmacopœia there seemed to be no remedial agent which could reach and recuperate my Nervous System, every thing that I had tried for this purpose had completely failed. At last I was led by my friends to examine your inventions, and (though with no very sanguine hopes of their efficacy) I determined to try the effect of the application of the GALVANIC BELT AND NECKLACE, with the MAGNETIC FLUID. This was in June, 1846. TO MY GREAT ASTONISHMENT, IN TWO DAYS MY DYSPEPSIA HAD GONE, IN EIGHT DAYS I WAS ENABLED TO RESUME MY PASTORAL LABORS, FOR HAVE I SINCE SUFFERED A SINGLE SERMON ON ACCOUNT OF THE BRONCHITIS, AND MY RHEUMATIC AFFECTION ALSO CEASED TO TROUBLE ME. If time permitted, I could fill a sheet of paper with the details of particulars, but I can now only furnish this brief abstract. My Dyspepsia has never returned, the Rheumatism visited me a while thereafter, but yielded severely, and is easily arrested, and is manifestly being driven from its hold upon my system, and my Bronchial affection is entirely cured. Such is the wonderful and happy result of the experiment.

I have recommended the BELT and FLUID to many who have been likewise suffering from neuralgic affections. They have tried them, WITH HAPPY RESULTS. I BELIEVE IN EVERY CASE.

Yours, dear sir, very respectfully yours,

ROBERT W LANDIS.

☞ Many hundred Certificates from all parts of the country of equally extraordinary character could be given.

☞ No trouble or inconvenience attends the use of DR CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC ARTICLES, and they may be worn by the most feeble and delicate with perfect ease and safety. In many cases the sensation attending their use is highly pleasant and agreeable. They can be sent to any part of the country.
